NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES
As required by the Privacy Regulations Created as a result of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPPA) and modified by the HIPAA Omnibus Final Rule of 2013.

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU (AS A PATIENT OF THIS PRACTICE) MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

OUR PLEDGE REGARDING PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION
Lubbock Urology Clinic, LLP and its affiliates ("Practice") are dedicated to maintaining the privacy of your individually identifiable health information, also described as "protected health information" (PHI). In conducting our business, we will create records regarding you and the treatment and services we provide to you. This relates to your past, present and future physical or mental health or conditions related to your health care services. Some of these records may be on paper and some may be in electronic media. We are required by law to maintain the confidentiality of this information that identifies you. We also are required by law to provide you with this notice of our legal duties and the privacy practices that we maintain in our practice concerning your PHI. By federal and state law, we must follow the terms of the notice of privacy practices that are in effect at that time. We realize that these laws are complex, but we must provide you with the following important information:

- How we may use and disclose your PHI
- Your privacy right in your PHI
- Our obligations concerning the use and disclosure of your PHI.

The terms of this notice apply to all records containing your PHI that are created or retained by our practice. We reserve the right to revise or amend this Notice of Privacy Practices. Any revision or amendment to this notice will be effective for all of your records that our practice has created or maintained in the past, and for any of your records that we may create or maintain in the future.

Upon your request, we will provide you with any revised Notice of Privacy Practices via our website, www.lubbockurology.com, or by calling the office and requesting that a revised copy be sent to you in the mail or asking for one at the time of your next appointment. An updated copy will also be posted in your Practice Physician’s office.

USES AND DISCLOSES OF PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION
Your protected health information may be used and disclosed by your physician, our office staff and others outside of our office that are involved in your care and treatment for the purpose of providing health care services to you. Your protected health information may also be used and disclosed to pay your health care bills and to support the operation of the Practice. Following are examples of the types of uses and disclosures of your protected health care information that the Practice is permitted to make. These examples are not meant to be exhaustive, but to describe the types of uses and disclosures that may be made by our Practice.

- For Treatment. We will use and disclose your protected health information to provide, coordinate, or manage your health care and any related services. This includes the coordination or management of your health care with a third party that has already obtained your permission to have access to your protected health information.

For example, we would disclose your protected health information, as necessary, to a home health agency that provides care to you. We will also disclose protected health information to physicians who may be treating you. For example, your protected health information may be provided to a physician to whom you have been referred to ensure that the physician has the necessary information to diagnose or treat you. In addition, we may disclose your protected health information to physicians who may be treating you.

- For Payment. Your protected health information will be used, as needed, to obtain payment for your health care services. This may include certain activities that your health insurance plan may undertake before it approves or pays for the health care services we recommend for you such as: making a determination of eligibility or coverage for insurance benefits, reviewing services provided to you for medical necessity, and undertaking utilization review activities.

For example, obtaining approval for a hospital stay may require that your relevant protected health information be disclosed to the health plan to obtain approval for the hospital admission.

- For Health Care Operations. We may use or disclose, as-needed, your protected health information in order to support the professional and business activities of the Practice. These activities include, but are not limited to, quality assessment activities, employee review activities, training of medical and nursing students, licensing, and conducting or arranging for other business activities. For example, we may disclose your protected health information to medical and nursing school students that see patients at our Practice. In addition, we may use a sign-in sheet at the registration desk where you will be asked to sign your name and provide other requested information. We may also call you by name in the waiting room when you are ready to be seen. We may use or disclose your protected health information, as necessary, to contact you to remind you of your appointment. We will share your protected health information with third party Business Associate or Business Associate subcontractor, or any affiliate of Lubbock Urology Clinic with whom we share information; to perform various activities (e.g., billing, transcription services, telephone answering services, etc.) for the Practice. We may use or disclose your protected health information as required by law.

The Practice is permitted to make. These examples are not meant to be exhaustive, but to describe the types of uses and disclosures that may be made by our Practice.

● For Treatment. We will use and disclose your protected health information to provide, coordinate, or manage your health care and any related services. This includes the coordination or management of your health care with a third party that has already obtained your permission to have access to your protected health information.

- For Payment. Your protected health information will be used, as needed, to obtain payment for your health care services. This may include certain activities that your health insurance plan may undertake before it approves or pays for the health care services we recommend for you such as: making a determination of eligibility or coverage for insurance benefits, reviewing services provided to you for medical necessity, and undertaking utilization review activities.

For example, obtaining approval for a hospital stay may require that your relevant protected health information be disclosed to the health plan to obtain approval for the hospital admission.

- For Health Care Operations. We may use or disclose, as-needed, your protected health information in order to support the professional and business activities of the Practice. These activities include, but are not limited to, quality assessment activities, employee review activities, training of medical and nursing students, licensing, and conducting or arranging for other business activities. For example, we may disclose your protected health information to medical and nursing school students that see patients at our Practice. In addition, we may use a sign-in sheet at the registration desk where you will be asked to sign your name and provide other requested information. We may also call you by name in the waiting room when you are ready to be seen. We may use or disclose your protected health information, as necessary, to contact you to remind you of your appointment. We will share your protected health information with third party Business Associate or Business Associate subcontractor, or any affiliate of Lubbock Urology Clinic with whom we share information; to perform various activities (e.g., billing, transcription services, telephone answering services, etc.) for the Practice. We may use or disclose your protected health information as required by law.

The Practice is permitted to make. These examples are not meant to be exhaustive, but to describe the types of uses and disclosures that may be made by our Practice.

- For Payment. Your protected health information will be used, as needed, to obtain payment for your health care services. This may include certain activities that your health insurance plan may undertake before it approves or pays for the health care services we recommend for you such as: making a determination of eligibility or coverage for insurance benefits, reviewing services provided to you for medical necessity, and undertaking utilization review activities.

For example, obtaining approval for a hospital stay may require that your relevant protected health information be disclosed to the health plan to obtain approval for the hospital admission.

- For Health Care Operations. We may use or disclose, as-needed, your protected health information in order to support the professional and business activities of the Practice. These activities include, but are not limited to, quality assessment activities, employee review activities, training of medical and nursing students, licensing, and conducting or arranging for other business activities. For example, we may disclose your protected health information to medical and nursing school students that see patients at our Practice. In addition, we may use a sign-in sheet at the registration desk where you will be asked to sign your name and provide other requested information. We may also call you by name in the waiting room when you are ready to be seen. We may use or disclose your protected health information, as necessary, to contact you to remind you of your appointment. We will share your protected health information with third party Business Associate or Business Associate subcontractor, or any affiliate of Lubbock Urology Clinic with whom we share information; to perform various activities (e.g., billing, transcription services, telephone answering services, etc.) for the Practice. We may use or disclose your protected health information as required by law.

The Practice is permitted to make. These examples are not meant to be exhaustive, but to describe the types of uses and disclosures that may be made by our Practice.

- For Payment. Your protected health information will be used, as needed, to obtain payment for your health care services. This may include certain activities that your health insurance plan may undertake before it approves or pays for the health care services we recommend for you such as: making a determination of eligibility or coverage for insurance benefits, reviewing services provided to you for medical necessity, and undertaking utilization review activities.

For example, obtaining approval for a hospital stay may require that your relevant protected health information be disclosed to the health plan to obtain approval for the hospital admission.

- For Health Care Operations. We may use or disclose, as-needed, your protected health information in order to support the professional and business activities of the Practice. These activities include, but are not limited to, quality assessment activities, employee review activities, training of medical and nursing students, licensing, and conducting or arranging for other business activities. For example, we may disclose your protected health information to medical and nursing school students that see patients at our Practice. In addition, we may use a sign-in sheet at the registration desk where you will be asked to sign your name and provide other requested information. We may also call you by name in the waiting room when you are ready to be seen. We may use or disclose your protected health information, as necessary, to contact you to remind you of your appointment. We will share your protected health information with third party Business Associate or Business Associate subcontractor, or any affiliate of Lubbock Urology Clinic with whom we share information; to perform various activities (e.g., billing, transcription services, telephone answering services, etc.) for the Practice. We may use or disclose your protected health information as required by law.
health information, as necessary, to provide you with appointment reminders, information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you. For example, we may send you information about products or services that we believe may be beneficial to you.

USES AND DISCLOSURES OF PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION BASED UPON YOUR WRITTEN AUTHORIZATION

Other uses and disclosures of your protected health information will be made only with your written authorization, unless otherwise permitted or required by law as described below. You may revoke this authorization, at any time, in writing, except to the extent that your physician or the Practice has taken an action in reliance on the use or disclosure indicated in the authorization.

OTHER PERMITTED AND REQUIRED USES AND DISCLOSURES THAT MAY BE MADE WITHOUT YOUR AUTHORIZATION OR OPPORTUNITY TO OBJECT

You have the opportunity to agree or object to the use or disclosure of all or part of your protected health information. If you are not present or unable to agree or object to such a disclosure, we may disclose such information as necessary if we determine that it is in your best interest based on our professional judgment. We may use or disclose protected health information to notify or assist in notifying a family member, personal representative or any other person that is responsible for your care of your location, general condition or death. Finally, we may use or disclose your protected health information to an authorized public or private entity to assist in disaster relief efforts and to coordinate uses and disclosures to family or other individuals involved in your health care.

EMERGENCIES: We may use or disclose your protected health information in an emergency treatment situation.

OTHER PERMITTED AND REQUIRED USES AND DISCLOSURES THAT MAY BE MADE WITHOUT YOUR AUTHORIZATION OR OPPORTUNITY TO OBJECT

We may use or disclose your protected health information in the following situations without your authorization. These situations include:

• Required By Law: We may use or disclose your protected health information to the extent that the use or disclosure is required by law. The use or disclosure will be made in compliance with the law and will be limited to the relevant requirements of the law. You may be notified, as required by law, of any such uses or disclosures.

• Breach of Notification: We will notify affected individuals of breach of unsecured PHI.

• Communicable Diseases: We may disclose your protected health information, if authorized by law, to a person who may have been exposed to a communicable disease or may otherwise be at risk of contracting or spreading the disease or condition.

• Health Oversight: We may disclose protected health information to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law, such as audits, investigations, and inspections. Oversight agencies seeking this information include government agencies that oversee the health care system, government benefit programs, other government regulatory programs and civil rights laws.

• Public Health: We may disclose your protected health information for public health activities and purposes to a public health authority that is permitted by law to collect or receive the information. The disclosure will be made for the purpose of controlling disease, injury or disability. We may also disclose your protected health information, if directed by the public health authority, to a foreign government agency that is collaborating with the public health authority.

• Food And Drug Administration: We may disclose your protected health information to a person or company required by the Food and Drug Administration to report adverse events, product defects or problems, biologic product deviations, track products; to enable product recalls; to make repairs or replacements, or to conduct post marketing surveillance, as required.

• Abuse or Neglect: We may disclose your protected health information to a public health authority that is authorized by law to receive reports of abuse or neglect. In addition, we may disclose your protected health information if we believe that you have been a victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence to the governmental entity or agency authorized to receive such information. In this case, the disclosure will be made consistent with the requirements of applicable federal and state laws.

• Criminal Activity: Consistent with applicable federal and state laws, we may disclose your protected health information, if we believe that the use or disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the health or safety of a person or the public. We may also disclose protected health information if it is necessary for law enforcement authorities to identify or apprehend an individual.

• Legal Proceedings: We may disclose protected health information in the course of any judicial or administrative proceeding, in response to an order of a court or administrative tribunal (to the extent such disclosure is expressly authorized), in certain conditions in response to a subpoena, discovery request, or other lawful process.

• Law Enforcement: We may also disclose protected health information, so long as applicable legal requirements are met, for law enforcement purposes. These law enforcement purposes include (1) legal processes and otherwise required by law, (2) limited information requests for identification and location purposes, (3) pertaining to victims of a crime, (4) suspicion that death has occurred as a result of criminal conduct, (5) in the event that a crime occurs on the premises of the Practice, and (6) medical emergency (not on the Practice Physician’s premises) and it is likely that a crime has occurred.

• Inmates: We may use or disclose your protected health information if you are an inmate of a correctional facility and your physician created or received your protected health information in the course of providing care to you.

• Workers’ Compensation: Your protected health information may be disclosed by us as authorized to comply with workers’ compensation laws and other similar legally-established programs.

REQUIRED USES AND DISCLOSURES:

Under the law, we may make disclosures to you and when required by the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services to investigate or determine our compliance with the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, Section 164.500 et. seq.

SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

Alcohol and drug abuse and certain infectious disease information have special privacy protections. The Practice will not disclose any information identifying an individual as being a patient or provide any health information relating to the patient’s substance abuse or certain infectious disease treatment unless the patient authorizes in writing; to carry out treatment, payment, and operations; or, as required by law.

YOUR RIGHTS

Following is a statement of your rights with respect to your protected health information and a brief description of how you may exercise these rights. The following uses and disclosures will only be made with your written authorization: (i) most uses and disclosures of psychotherapy notes; (ii) Other than face-to-face conversations about services and treatment alternatives we will not use your protected information for third party marketing purposes without your authorization; (iii) disclosures that constitute a sale of PHI; (iv) other uses and disclosures not de-scribed in the Notice of Privacy Practices.

• You have the right to inspect and copy your protected health information. This means you may inspect and obtain a copy of protected health information about you that is contained in a designated record set for as long as we maintain the protected health information. A “designated record set” contains medical and billing records and any other records that your physician and the practice use for making decisions about your health care. The request must be made in writing to Lubbock Urology Clinic, LLP. If you request a copy of your medical record, the Practice will provide you a copy within 30 days. We are permitted to charge a reasonable fee established by the Texas Medical Board for the cost of copying, mailing and summarizing you records. Under limited circumstances, your request may be denied.

• You are hereby notified that your electronic health record is subject to electronic disclosure. You have the right to request a restriction of your protected health information. This means you may ask us not to use or disclose any part of your protected health information for the purposes of treatment, payment or healthcare operations. You may also request that any part of your protected health information not be disclosed to family members or friends who may be involved in your care or for notification purposes as described in this Notice of Privacy Practices. Your request must state the specific restriction requested and to whom you want the restriction to apply. You have the right to restrict disclosure of PHI to a health plan where you paid out-of-pocket, in full, for the care or service provided. We are not required to agree to a restriction that you may request. If we believe it is in your best interest to permit use and disclosure of your protected health information, your protected health information will not be restricted. If we do agree to the requested restriction,

• Right to Access and Notice of Electronic Health Records under Texas Law. You are hereby notified that the Practice maintains an electronic health record system for your records. You may submit a written request to the Practice for a copy of your electronic health records which will be provided to you electronically within 15 days unless you agree to accept your records in another form. We are permitted to charge a reasonable fee established by the Texas Medical Board for the cost of copying, mailing and summarizing you records. Under limited circumstances, your request may be denied.

• Military Activity and National Security: When the appropriate conditions apply, we may use or disclose protected health information to a coroner or medical examiner for identification purposes, determining cause of death or for the coroner or medical examiner to perform other duties authorized by law. We may also disclose protected health information to a funeral director, as authorized by law, in order to permit the funeral director to carry out their duties. We may disclose such information in reasonable anticipation of death. Protected health information may be used and disclosed for cadaveric organ, eye or tissue donation purposes.

• Research: If you choose to participate in medical or scientific research, we may disclose your protected health information to researchers when their research has been approved by an institutional review board that has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of your protected health information.

• Military Activity and National Security: When the appropriate conditions apply, we may use or disclose protected health information to a coroner or medical examiner for identification purposes, determining cause of death or for the coroner or medical examiner to perform other duties authorized by law. We may also disclose protected health information to a funeral director, as authorized by law, in order to permit the funeral director to carry out their duties. We may disclose such information in reasonable anticipation of death. Protected health information may be used and disclosed for cadaveric organ, eye or tissue donation purposes.

• Research: If you choose to participate in medical or scientific research, we may disclose your protected health information to researchers when their research has been approved by an institutional review board that has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of your protected health information.

• Military Activity and National Security: When the appropriate conditions apply, we may use or disclose protected health information to a coroner or medical examiner for identification purposes, determining cause of death or for the coroner or medical examiner to perform other duties authorized by law. We may also disclose protected health information to a funeral director, as authorized by law, in order to permit the funeral director to carry out their duties. We may disclose such information in reasonable anticipation of death. Protected health information may be used and disclosed for cadaveric organ, eye or tissue donation purposes.
we may not use or disclose your protected health information in violation of that restriction unless it is needed to provide emergency treatment. With this in mind, please discuss any restriction you wish to request with the Practice Physician’s manager. You may request a restriction by submitting your written request to the manager of the Practice.

- You have the right to request to receive confidential communications from us by alternative means or at an alternative location. We will accommodate reasonable requests. We may also condition this accommodation by asking you for information as to how payment will be handled or specification of an alternative address or other method of contact. We will not request an explanation from you as to the basis for the request. Please make this request in writing to our Privacy Officer at 6102 82nd Street, Suite 5, Lubbock, Texas 79424.

- You may have the right to have your physician amend your protected health information. This means you may request an amendment of protected health information about you in a designated record set for as long as we maintain this information for the purpose of correcting an error or misinformation. In certain cases, we may deny your request for an amendment. If we deny your request for amendment, you have the right to file a statement of disagreement with us and that statement will become part of your medical record. Your physician may prepare a rebuttal to your statement which will also become part of your medical record. Your physician will provide you with a copy of any such rebuttal. Please contact our Privacy Officer if you have questions about amending your medical record.

- You have the right to receive an accounting of certain disclosures we have made, if any, of your protected health information. This right applies to disclosures for purposes other than treatment, payment or healthcare operations as described in this Notice of Privacy Practices. It excludes disclosures we may have made to you, to family members or friends involved in your care, or for notification purposes to legal or regulatory agencies. You have the right to receive specific information regarding these disclosures that occurred after April 14, 2003. You may request a shorter timeframe. The right to receive this information is subject to certain exceptions, restrictions and limitations.

- You have the right to obtain a paper copy of this notice from us, upon request, even if you have agreed to accept this notice electronically.

Questions or Complaints If you have a question or complaints about your privacy rights, please file a grievance form with the Manager of the Practice where you encountered a problem, or contact the Privacy Officer at 806-771-0077. Should the Privacy Officer be unable to resolve your complaint to your satisfaction, you may send a written complaint to the Office of Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Room 509F, HHH Building, Washington, D.C. 20201. We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.